

TERMS OF SERVICE

These Terms of Service shall be a binding agreement between the operators and partners (the "Company") related to the Bestecnz.com and/or BNFXTTrading.com website (the "Web Site") the individual and/or legal entity representative visiting the Web Site ("you" or the "Client") and the Company. Your access to and use of this Web Site and any pages hereof shall constitute your agreement to be bound by these Terms of Use as well as any other legal notices and statements contained on this Web Site, including but not limited to the Privacy Policy.

The Company reserves the right to modify these Terms of Service at any time and without prior notice. You are responsible for reviewing these Terms of Service. Your continued access and use of this Web Site shall constitute your acceptance of these Terms of Service as changed.

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

SERVICES AND RISKS

The Company may offer various services that allow Clients to independently engage in trading operations using software which the Company makes freely available to its clients as part of services provided. If a Client's application is accepted for a live account by the Company, the Client is then able to send advance payments to the Company and utilise the Company's services in accordance with the terms and agreements pertaining to live Client accounts, including but not limited to the Client Agreement. With a live account, the Client may perform trading operations against a balance of advance payments, less commissions and fees deducted for fund transfers, attributed to the Client's account so that transactions in over-the-counter contracts may be executed against a collateral security. The available collateral of the Client's account will change according to the profit and loss resulting from trading operations and, due to the effect of leverage, the available collateral may increase or decrease and there is the risk of losing the entire collateral. Over-the-counter contracts are not suitable for all investors and, as with other investments, are high risk ventures that every client should fully understand before engaging in any trading operations.

Not all products and services are available to potential Clients who are legally resident in all geographic areas. The Company reserves the right, in its sole discretion, to reject to do business with any Client. Additionally, the Company may, in its sole discretion, terminate any Client's account without prior notice. The Company reserves the right to exercise control over the activities of the Client regarding the use of the Company's services.

By applying for, and/or using, a trading account provided by the Company, the Client confirms that he/she/it has read and understood all terms and agreements published on the Company's Web Site as well as terms and agreements included with the live account application, including but not limited to the Terms of Service, Privacy Policy, and Client Agreement (together, the "Operative Agreements"). If you do not accept these terms, then the Company encourages you not to use its services.

Additionally, by submitting an application to the Company, the Client warrants that: the Client is sound of mind, legal age and legal competence; the Client (if not a natural person) is duly organized and in good standing under the applicable laws of the jurisdiction of its organization; if the Client is a corporate entity, the person who has completed the client account application and all related forms on the Client's behalf is duly authorized to do so; and the information provided by the Client to the Company in all applications and forms at any time thereafter is true, accurate and complete.

If any term of the Operative Agreements (or any part of any term) shall be held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be unenforceable for any reason then such term shall, to that extent, be deemed severable, but the enforceability of the remainder of the Operative Agreements shall not be affected.
